

Getting Started with Tanium Online Training Course

Course Description

Intended for both new users and those looking to increase their Tanium knowledge, the Getting Started with Tanium online training course introduces the Tanium platform and core functions including questions, sensors, packages, saved questions, dashboards, categories, analyzing trends, actions, action groups, and more. Participants demonstrate their knowledge with a review assessment covering each topic.

Length

60 minutes + demo videos

Target Audience

This course is intended for anyone looking to build on their Tanium knowledge of core Tanium features and functions.

Delivery Options

This self-paced training course is offered remotely through the Tanium Learning Center

Course Outline

01 – Introduction

- Introduction to Tanium
- Learning Objectives

02 – Tanium's Topology

- Hub and Spoke Topology
- Linear Chain Topology

03 – Accessing the Console

- Accessing the Console
- Role-Based Action Control

04 – Using Interact

- Asking Questions Using Interact
  - The Ask a Question Bar
  - Building Questions
  - Best Practices
- Message Evaluation
- Question Results
  - Saved Questions
  - Copy to Question Builder
- Filter + Drilldown
- Counting Questions
- Filter Relational Operators
- Filters in a Grouping Questions
- Sensors
- Parameterized Sensors
- Exporting Your Results
- Dashboards
- Categories

05 – Actions + Packages

- What are Actions?
- Packages
- Deploying an Action
- On-Demand and Scheduled Actions
- Edit Scheduled Actions

06 – Computer + Action Groups

- Computer Groups
- Action Groups

07 – Trends

- What is Trends?
- Boards, Panels, and Sections
- Sharing Tanium Boards

08 – Written Assessment

- Demonstrate knowledge retention with a series of randomized questions